PRES. COOLIDGE GIVES ADVICE TO FARMERS

REDUCED PRODUCTION TO SOLVE ILLS

PRESIDENT SPOKE AT CHICAGO LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION

TROUBLES OF FARMER ON THE FARM AND IN THE MARKET

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 5.—Reduced production was the advice President Coolidge gave to farmers in a speech here last night at the International Livestock Exposition.

Most of the ills of agriculture come from over-production, Mr. Coolidge declared, and not from failure of the government to devise panaceas.

"It is not from any lack of government activity in this direction that the farmer is suffering," Mr. Coolidge said emphatically.

"The troubles of the farmer are on the farm and in the market. They come largely from over-production. We are searching for remedies."

"The sound remedy is to reduce production, and that is one which will automatically apply itself if there is no artificial interference."

Mr. Coolidge today declared the time will come when this country will become an importer of food-stuffs, and the question will be under-production rather than over-production. But until that time comes this country will continue to have a large surplus.

The federal government is doing everything in its power to put agriculture on a sound footing, Mr. Coolidge said, pointing out that $5,000,000 has been placed at the disposal of the War Finance Corporation and agricultural department during five years. This money was used to help deflation in agricultural districts.

TWO BOYS, GIRLS FREED OF MURDER

INFLUENCE OF LOEB, LEOPOLD CASE IS SEEN IN THE ACQUITTAL

Chicago, Dec. 5.—The influence of the Leopold-Loeb murder case was seen again in the acquittal of four minors on charges of murder.

In the same courtroom where Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, confessed murderers of Bobby Franks, escaped the death penalty, and went to jail instead, Lucille Marshall, Anna Valanis, Anthony Valanis and William D. Lydon, all under 19, were found not guilty of the charge of killing Mrs. Bessie Gaesslen, rooming house keeper.

The four minors had confessed to tying up and gagging the woman, but denied they killed her. The Marshall girl told a sordid story of having been an inmate in the woman's rooming house. She charged that the woman robbed her of her shameful wages.

The girl said that the woman secreted some of her clothing. In an effort to retrieve the wearing apparel, the Marshall girl and her three companions trussed and gagged the woman and left her on a bed where she died from strangulation.

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe who played a spectacular role losing part in the Leopold-Loeb case, said:

"The effect of the Leopold-Loeb case will not pass for some time. The evidence in this case was unquestionable. But when you consider that 22 is the average age of young criminals and a court has held that youth is a defense, I don't see how you can expect much of juries."

SPECIFICATIONS WERE EXCEEDED

Washington, Dec. 5.—Great Britain has started negotiations with this government in an effort to protect her interests in case France receives better refunding terms on the French debt to the United States than those accorded to Britain, it was learned today.

SAYS FORBES MADE $30,000 ON A CONTRACT

ELIAS H. MORTIMER, STAR GOVERNMENT WITNESS, GIVES TESTIMONY

OCCURRED WHILE FORBES WAS HEAD OF VETERANS BUREAU, SAID WITNESS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 5.—Col. Charles R. Forbes received $30,000 from John W. Thompson, St. Louis contractor, as a result of the hospitalization contract between the two men, Elias H. Mortimer, star government witness in the Forbes-Thompson fraud trial, said today.

This occurred while Forbes was head of the Veterans' Bureau, Mortimer stated. The witness also told of Forbes being embarrassed in newspaper inquiries into the letting of the Northampton, Mass., hospitalization plant.

The defunct Pontiac Construction company, a subsidiary of the Thompson & Black Company of St. Louis, secured the contract.

Mortimer testified that at one time he charged Forbes with double-crossing him and that Forbes made a similar charge against him.

Mortimer testified he had asked Forbes about the Northampton, Massachusetts, hospitalization contract and Forbes had told him of having trouble.

CONGRESS CHAMPS AT THE ECONOMY BIT OF COOLIDGE

MAY WIPE OUT $57,000,000 SURPLUS EXPECTED THIS YEAR

OMEN OF HOUSE TEMPER SHOWN IN REGARD TO 39 LAND OFFICES

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 5.—Congress already shows signs of bucking President Coolidge's economy program to an extent that may wipe out the $57,000,000 surplus expected this year and threaten further tax reduction.

Action by the house in disregarding the president's recommendations before his message was a day old by putting a $235,000 appropriation for 39 land offices back in the interior bill is regarded as an omen of its temper.

Secretary Work and the house appropriation committee recommended that the offices be abolished as a means of saving money, but the house speedily overrode both.

House leaders protested not so much because of the amount involved but because it foreshadowed rough going for the carefully pared budget.

Many similar plans for reduction in offices and positions to save money will continue in the appropriations bills coming up unless both houses were willing to "stand in the shafts" and co-operate with the president and the budget bureau. Not only will the surplus disappear, but plans for more tax reduction will be endangered.

This prospect faced house managers today when debate on the interior bill was resumed.

2 PAY PENALTY FOR KILLING AN ARMY OFFICER

HARRELL AND KING, YOUTHFUL SLAYERS, MARCH TO DOOM AT DAWN

"TELL THE BOYS I DIED LIKE A MAN," SAID KING, AN EX-MARINE

(By United Press)
State Penitentiary, Columbia, S. C., Dec. 5.—Frank Harrell and Mortimer King paid the death penalty today at dawn for the murder of Major Samuel H. McLeary, of the United States army.

Both of the youthful slayers marched calmly to their deaths in the state electric chair, their final pleas for a commutation of sentence having been denied them by Governor McLeod.

Harrell was the first to die, protesting to the end that King was the actual slayer and that the crime was not premeditated. "I never intended to kill anyone. It is not fair play that I should die," were his last words as he was strapped in the death chair.

Then the current was applied at 6:04 and he was pronounced dead four minutes and 20 seconds later.

King was led from the death chamber at 6:36. Before seating himself in the death chair he singled out an ex-marine and addressed him briefly:

"Tell all the boys I died like a man."

King was an ex-marine.

The clamps were quickly adjusted and the current snapped on at 6:40. Four minutes later King was dead.

Only the usual witnesses of prison officials and newspaper men were permitted to witness the electrocutions.

Major Cleary was slain on July 8 on a lonely highway between Columbia and Cheraw. King and Harrell were trapping when the army officer en route in his automobile from Raleigh to Charleston offered them a "lift."

The men accepted the major's hospitality, and when a favorable spot was reached the army officer was ordered from the car and shot down. The body was hidden in the woods near the road and the slayers drove away.

The major's murder was not suspected until several days later when he failed to come for money sent to him at a hotel in Columbia. Officers found his automobile near Canton, N. C., where King was arrested.

King implicated Harrell, who was subsequently taken into custody at Nashville, Tenn.

WANTS A BILL OF PARTICULARS

WILDA BENNETT RESENTS GENERAL ACCUSATION OF MRS. K. M. FREY

(By United Press)
Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 5.—Wilda Bennett, star of "Mme. Pompadour," applied in supreme court here for a writ compelling Mrs. Katherine M. Frey of Louisville, to file a bill of particulars in her suit against the actress for $100,000 for alienation of the affections of Mr. Frey who is a prominent turf man.

"I want to know what Mrs. Frey means when she says 'I lived' with her husband," Miss Bennett said. "If she means that we had illicit relations she is making false accusations. I am not in a position to meet the allegations in her complaint because I don't know the times, places or dates on which Mrs. Frey charges."

Mrs. Frey brought suit against Miss Bennett early in the fall, charging the actress with stealing her husband, Charles C. Frey, and asking $100,000.

$50,000 IN DIAMONDS IS BANDIT LOOT

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 5.—Three bandits held up the South Side branch store of Olsen & Ebban company, leading downtown jewelers, and escaped with $50,000 in set diamonds shortly after the store opened for business today.

Peter Christenson, manager, and a customer were locked in a back room. A negro porter was beaten into unconsciousness.

JAMES AVANT, COLORED, TAKES SEAT IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF YOUNGSTOWN, W. MAN

Columbus, O., Dec. 5.—Gorged until he could hardly walk with the largest supper ever ordered by a condemned man at the Ohio penitentiary, James Avant, 41, colored, was executed in the electric chair early today for the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Stittle in Youngstown last April.

"God have mercy," Avant said as he mounted the platform on which the death chair stands and sat down with what seemed to the little group of watchers to be a sigh of relief.

Prison officials said "he got away with all the meal between six p. m. and midnight."

At 12:08 a. m. Dr. L. C. Perry announced Avant dead.

TWO PLEAD NOT GUILTY TO A MURDER CHARGE

DI MARTINO AND VITALE BEFORE MADISON, WIS., COURT

CHARGED WITH KILLING POLICE OFFICER HERBERT DREGER

Madison, Wis., Dec. 5.—Sam Di Martino and Frank Vitale, charged with the murder of Police Officer Herbert Dreger, today pleaded not guilty before Superior Court Judge Hoppmann.

Vitale and Di Martino were remanded to the custody of the sheriff following their arraignment.

Warrants charging first degree murder were sworn out this morning.

Dreger was found dying near "death corner" in Madison's Italian district Tuesday night.

Vitale and Di Martino were arrested within an hour after the slaying, but they maintained their innocence in the face of constant questioning.

MELLON URGES SWIFT REFORM IN NEW TAX LAW

GOVERNMENT FACES A SERIOUS SITUATION, TREASURY HEAD DECLARES

REPORT CITES GROWING NUMBER OF EVASIONS, HIGH SURTAX SCORED

Washington, Dec. 5.—Congress must act swiftly to reform the present tax law, for "the importance of getting our taxing system on a sound basis is not a subject which with safety for our future can be long postponed," Secretary of the Treasury Mellon declared in his annual report to congress.

America's business and industrial outlook is "more favorable for sound and orderly economic development than at any time since the war," said Mellon, "but revenues are dwindling, new ways of tax evasion are being devised, tax-exempt securities are multiplying and the national government faces a serious situation."

"It is clear that we must look carefully to the productivity of existing taxes and to their economic stability if we are to have further tax reduction and if we are not to be forced in less prosperous times to actual tax increases," the treasury secretary said.

"The attention of congress should be directed principally to the excessive surtax rates and to the confiscatory estate tax rates. The gift tax is unworkable and unduly hampers legitimate business. The publicity provision in the revenue law in my opinion is a mistake of policy and will be detrimental to the revenue."

Mellon recommended that the maximum surtax rate be fixed between 15 and 25 per cent, which, with a normal tax of 6 per cent, would make the maximum tax between 21 and 31 per cent instead of 46 per cent as at present. "What the exact rate of maximum of profit may be is a matter of judgment," he said.

Business initiative is now blighted by high taxes, the veteran financier declared.

"The law now says to the man of large income: If you lose on your venture, you will pay 100 per cent of the loss; if you win, the law will take 50 per cent of your profit," he said. "These are not the odds which encourage adventure or the production of income which will yield its revenue to the government. No man will continue to sow where he cannot reap."

"We have then the blighting effect of excessive rates, which compel avoidance and destroy initiative, and by both means diminish the returns from the upper brackets, from which the government has been taking a large part of its revenue."

The nation must look to its foreign as well as its domestic trade, too, Mellon said, because adaptation of the Dawes plan presages industrial activities among our European competitors, and "if we are to compete successfully abroad we must be sure that our taxation system does not put too heavy a handicap on our industry and trade."

Mellon attacked the economic philosophy of the "high surtax bloc" which would shift the burden of taxation to the rich.

"The argument is made that the wealthy should bear substantially the whole burden," he said, "but it is impossible for the government to live by taxing the wealthy alone. It may be truly said that the man with small income is more interested than are the wealthy themselves in seeing that the tax upon high incomes and large estates is economically sound."

Mellon argued strongly for a much more simpler tax law on the ground that congress had overreached itself in seeking to check the inevitable search of highly taxed capital for methods of evasion by an intricate system of barriers. The present revenue laws are so complex, he said, that the government finds difficulty in enforcing them.

SHIP BURNED IN LAKE ERIE NEAR STONY POINT

(By United Press)
Stony Point, Mich., Dec. 5.—An unidentified ship was believed to have burned in Lake Erie 15 miles off Stony Point last night. Residents here reported seeing a huge blaze in the lake that lasted far into the night.

Marine quarters in Monroe, Mich., had no report of any ship on fire.

KORETZ HAS $5 OF HIS $2,000,000 FORTUNE ON HAND

FAKE OIL STOCK SWINDLER IS BROKE DOWN IN HEALTH

CRUSHED IN SPIRIT, STARTS TO SERVE HIS SENTENCE

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 5.—Broken in health, crushed in spirit and with less than $5 of his $2,000,000 left, Leo Koretz, fake oil stock swindler, today prepared to start serving his prison sentence of from one to ten years. Sentence was imposed late yesterday by Chief Justice Hopkins.

Sentence was from one to ten years on each of the three indictments of ~~fraud~~ in connection with his swindling operations, the terms to run concurrently. Physicians indicated Koretz will be eligible for parole, months. He is suffering from an advanced case of diabetes, along with other ailments.

Justice Hopkins declared that in view of Koretz' illness, his refusal to fight extradition from Halifax, where he was arrested, and his plea of guilty, the ends of justice would be well served if the sentences would run concurrently.

Koretz accepted the sentence with little demonstration. He grinned wanly and said he was ready to go.

Koretz will be taken to Joliet penitentiary late today or tomorrow, States Attorney Crowe said.

Eleven months after he enters jail Koretz will be eligible for parole. However, such sentences usually run six and one-half years, Crowe said, even though there is exemplary behavior, unless unforeseen circumstances develop. If Koretz lives to serve out the term the federal government will be waiting for him with warrants charging evasion of his income tax and using the mails to defraud.

GUN JAMMED AND THE BULLS GOT JACK RENTZ

CHICAGO BANDIT RUN DOWN IN ST. PAUL ROOMING HOUSE

DETECTIVES SHOOT HIM IN THE CHEEK, NECK AND BACK

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Dec. 5.—"The bulls would not have got me if my gun hadn't jammed," Jack Rentz, alias "Whitey" Nelson, said today in his room at Ancker hospital.

The Chicago bandit, bearing three bullets in his body, was caught by detectives in a rooming house.

A detective lay in wait in a drug store when Rentz entered to rob it. He escaped in a gun battle. Rentz was found later, a bullet in his cheek, another deep in his neck and a third in his back.

He fears the scars the bullet holes may leave more than the 40 years in prison which he may face. Rentz is 33 years old and boasts that he has been a bandit and gunman for 15 years.

53 RAILROADS OF WEST AND MIDWEST OBJECT

ASK THAT I. C. C. DECISION OF MAY 17 BE DECLARED ILLEGAL

PRAY FOR AN INJUNCTION RESTRAINING REDUCTIONS BECOMING EFFECTIVE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Dec. 5.—Reduction of express rates in the west and midwest was attacked by 53 railroads in the United district court here today.

The railroads asked that the reduction authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission May 17 be declared illegal and prayed for an injunction restraining the American Railway Express company and the government from making the reductions effective January 1 or thereafter.

Nine railroads with headquarters in the Twin Cities are among the 53 which jointly filed the suit in Federal court late yesterday. The complaint covered 40 pages and was accompanied by several voluminous exhibits.

The railroads charge that the Interstate Commerce commission findings are incorrect and announced further that the eastern groups of railroads are being favored by the commission.

Morrison Convicted of Libel in Power Action at Hibbing

Hibbing, Dec. 5.—John L. Morrison, Duluth publisher, was found guilty on a charge of criminal libel brought by Victor L. Power, former Hibbing mayor, by a jury in municipal court here, the verdict being returned yesterday, seven and a half hours after the jurors had retired.

When the verdict was read, Morrison requested a stay of sentence. This the court granted, setting the time for 2:30 p. m. next Monday.

The suit was the outgrowth of an article printed in Morrison's paper, which Mr. Power claimed, injured him politically.

Arguments in the case occupied the entire session of the court day on Thursday. George Lommen, former Biwabik mayor, Charles Bardsen, private secretary to Mr. Power; Morris Mulvihill, S. C. Scott and Frank Grant testifying in behalf of the plaintiff.—Duluth News-Tribune.

WANTS NO NEW LAWS ON RADIO REGULATION FOR YEAR

Washington, Dec. 5.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover in a letter to Representative White, Maine, member of the house merchant marine committee, today recommended that congress pass no legislation affecting radio industry for another year.

Mr. Hoover requested simply an extension of the authority now exercised over the industry by the department of commerce. In the meantime radio would continue practically on a self-regulating basis with the department acting in an advisory capacity.

White is the author of a bill providing for regulation of radio in detail.

DROWNS DAUGHTER AND HERSELF

Cleveland, O., Dec. 5.—Despondent, Mrs. Eileen Wood, lead her daughter, Irene, 6, to a lonely pier on the East Side pushed her way into the icy waters of Lake Erie, and then drowned herself.

The bodies were recovered when washed ashore last night. "I am leaving you the two boys and taking the girl with me," Mrs. Woods said in a note left for her husband, Worden Wood.

MELLON URGES SWIFT REFORM IN NEW TAX LAW

GOVERNMENT FACES A SERIOUS SITUATION, TREASURY HEAD DECLARES

REPORT CITES GROWING NUMBER OF EVASIONS, HIGH SURTAX SCORED

Washington, Dec. 5.—Congress must act swiftly to reform the present tax law, for "the importance of getting our taxing system on a sound basis is not a subject which with safety for our future can be long postponed," Secretary of the Treasury Mellon declared in his annual report to congress.

America's business and industrial outlook is "more favorable for sound and orderly economic development than at any time since the war," said Mellon, "but revenues are dwindling, new ways of tax evasion are being devised, tax-exempt securities are multiplying and the national government faces a serious situation."

"It is clear that we must look carefully to the productivity of existing taxes and to their economic stability if we are to have further tax reduction and if we are not to be forced in less prosperous times to actual tax increases," the treasury secretary said.

"The attention of congress should be directed principally to the excessive surtax rates and to the confiscatory estate tax rates. The gift tax is unworkable and unduly hampers legitimate business. The publicity provision in the revenue law in my opinion is a mistake of policy and will be detrimental to the revenue."

Mellon recommended that the maximum surtax rate be fixed between 15 and 25 per cent, which, with a normal tax of 6 per cent, would make the maximum tax between 21 and 31 per cent instead of 46 per cent as at present. "What the exact rate of maximum of profit may be is a matter of judgment," he said.

Business initiative is now blighted by high taxes, the veteran financier declared.

"The law now says to the man of large income: If you lose on your venture, you will pay 100 per cent of the loss; if you win, the law will take 50 per cent of your profit," he said.

"These are not the odds, which encourage adventure or the production of income which will yield its revenue to the government. No man will continue to sow where he cannot reap."

"We have then the blighting effect of excessive rates, which compel avoidance and destroy initiative, and by both means diminish the returns from the upper brackets, from which the government has been taking a large part of its revenue."

The nation must look to its foreign as well as its domestic trade, too, Mellon said, because adaptation of the Dawes plan presages industrial activities among our European competitors, and "if we are to compete successfully abroad we must be sure that our taxation system does not put too heavy a handicap on our industry and trade."

Mellon attacked the economic philosophy of the "high surtax bloc" which would shift the burden of taxation to the rich.

"The argument is made that the wealthy should bear substantially the whole burden," he said, "but it is impossible for the government to live by taxing the wealthy alone. It may be truly said that the man with small income is more interested than are the wealthy themselves in seeing that the tax upon high incomes and large estates is economically sound."

Mellon argued strongly for a much more simpler tax law on the ground that congress had overreached itself in seeking to check the inevitable search of highly taxed capital for methods of evasion by an intricate system of barriers. The present revenue laws are so complex, he said, that the government finds difficulty in enforcing them.

SHIP BURNED IN LAKE ERIE NEAR STONY POINT

(By United Press)
Stony Point, Mich., Dec. 5.—An unidentified ship was believed to have burned in Lake Erie 15 miles off Stony Point last night. Residents here reported seeing a huge blaze in the lake that lasted far into the night.

Marine quarters in Monroe, Mich., had no report of any ship on fire.

KORETZ HAS $5 OF HIS $2,000,000 FORTUNE ON HAND

FAKE OIL STOCK SWINDLER IS BROKE DOWN IN HEALTH

CRUSHED IN SPIRIT, STARTS TO SERVE HIS SENTENCE

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 5.—Broken in health, crushed in spirit and with less than $5 of his $2,000,000 left, Leo Koretz, fake oil stock swindler, today prepared to start serving his prison sentence of from one to ten years. Sentence was imposed late yesterday by Chief Justice Hopkins.

Sentence was from one to ten years on each of the three indictments of Koretz in connection with his swindling operations, the terms to run concurrently. Physicians indicated Koretz will be eligible for parole. He is suffering from an advanced case of diabetes, along with other ailments.

Justice Hopkins declared that in view of Koretz' illness, his refusal to fight extradition from Halifax, where he was arrested, and his plea of guilty, the ends of justice would be well served if the sentences would run concurrently.

Koretz accepted the sentence with little demonstration. He grinned wanly and said he was ready to go.

Koretz will be taken to Joliet penitentiary late today or tomorrow, States Attorney Crowe said.

Eleven months after he enters jail Koretz will be eligible for parole. However, such sentences usually run six and one-half years, Crowe said, even though there is exemplary behavior, unless unforeseen circumstances develop. If Koretz lives to serve out the term the federal government will be waiting for him with warrants charging evasion of his income tax and using the mails to defraud.

GUN JAMMED AND THE BULLS GOT JACK RENTZ

CHICAGO BANDIT RUN DOWN IN ST. PAUL ROOMING HOUSE

DETECTIVES SHOOT HIM IN THE CHEEK, NECK AND BACK

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Dec. 5.—"The bulls would not have got me if my gun hadn't jammed," Jack Rentz, alias "Whitey" Nelson, said today in his room at Ancker hospital.

The Chicago bandit, bearing three bullets in his body, was caught by detectives in a rooming house.

A detective lay in wait in a drug store when Rentz entered to rob it. He escaped in a gun battle. Rentz was found later, a bullet in his cheek, another deep in his neck and a third in his back.

He fears the scars the bullet holes may leave more than the 40 years in prison which he may face. Rentz is 33 years old and boasts that he has been a bandit and gunman for 15 years.

53 RAILROADS OF WEST AND MIDWEST OBJECT

ASK THAT I. C. C. DECISION OF MAY 17 BE DECLARED ILLEGAL

PRAY FOR AN INJUNCTION RESTRAINING REDUCTIONS BECOMING EFFECTIVE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Dec. 5.—Reduction of express rates in the west and midwest was attacked by 53 railroads in the United States district court here today. The railroads asked that the reduction authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission May 17 be declared illegal and prayed for an injunction restraining the American Railway Express company and the government from making the reductions effective January 1 or thereafter.

Nine railroads with headquarters in the Twin Cities are among the 53 which jointly filed the suit in Federal court late yesterday. The complaint covered 40 pages and was accompanied by several voluminous exhibits.

The railroads charge that the Interstate Commerce commission findings are incorrect and announced further that the eastern groups of railroads are being favored by the commission.

Morrison Convicted of Libel in Power Action at Hibbing

Hibbing, Dec. 5.—John L. Morrison, Duluth publisher, was found guilty on a charge of criminal libel brought by Viator L. Power, former Hibbing mayor, by a jury in municipal court here, the verdict being returned yesterday, seven and a half hours after the jurors had retired.

When the verdict was read, Morrison requested a stay of sentence. This the court granted, setting the time for 2:30 p. m. next Monday.

The suit was the outgrowth of an article printed in Morrison's paper, which Mr. Power claimed, injured him politically.

Arguments in the case occupied the entire session of the court day on Thursday. George Lommen, former Biwabik mayor, Charles Bardeson, private secretary to Mr. Power; Morris Mulvihill, S. C. Scott and Frank Grant testifying in behalf of the plaintiff.—Duluth News-Tribune.

WANTS NO NEW LAWS ON RADIO REGULATION FOR YEAR

Washington, Dec. 5.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover in a letter to Representative White, Maine, member of the house merchant marine committee, today recommended that congress pass no legislation affecting radio industry for another year.

Mr. Hoover requested simply an extension of the authority now exercised over the industry by the department of commerce. In the meantime radio would continue practically on a self-regulating basis with the department acting in an advisory capacity.

White is the author of a bill providing for regulation of radio in detail.

DROWNS DAUGHTER AND HERSELF

Cleveland, O., Dec. 5.—Despondent, Mrs. Eileen Wood, lead her daughter, Irene, 6, to a lonely pier on the East Side pushed her way into the icy waters of Lake Erie, and then drowned herself.

The bodies were recovered when washed ashore last night. "I am leaving you the two boys and taking the girl with me," Mrs. Woods said in a note left for her husband, Worden Wood.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE UNDER WAY

Local Campaign Fostered by Committee of Brainerd Musical Club

MRS. W. C. MANNIS, CHAIRMAN

Seals on Sale at Postoffice, Ransford Hotel, First National and Citizens Banks

The local campaign in the Christmas Seal sale, which opened officially throughout the nation on Thanksgiving day to raise funds for the 1925 fight against tuberculosis and to promote health for all, will start on December 10th, according to the announcement of Mrs. W. C. Mannis, local seal sale director. The local volunteer workers form a part of the state's huge selling force, which consists of more than 80 county campaign directors, over 800 local managers, and 8,000 rural school teachers. Gay green and red posters have been placed throughout the county, urging every one to buy Christmas Seals, and movie slides and trailers will also be used locally as part of the educational and fund-raising campaign. The little Christmas Seal this year is particularly attractive and significant of the educational work it makes possible, symbolizing as it does the light of knowledge about tuberculosis the little penny stamps have carried into every part of the world.

Local plans for the campaign are as follows, according to the committee in charge:

This campaign is being carried on in Brainerd under the direction of the Brainerd Musical club, and will start on Wednesday, Dec. 10th. Mrs. W. C. Mannis is chairman of the club's committee that will have charge of the sale and her co-workers will be Mrs. James Graham, Mrs. E. R. Adair, Mrs. I. C. Strout, Mrs. D. E. Whitney, Miss Mary A. Scott and Miss Elizabeth Walsh.

Seals are on sale at the postoffice, Ransford hotel, First National and Citizens State banks.

The Christmas Seal does not ask much of any one, but it asks something of every one for the fight against tuberculosis is everybody's job, and until the disease is completely controlled no home is absolutely safe.

The larger the sale of Christmas Seals the greater will be the health work we can do in our county next year. Free clinics, school scales, health lectures, health movies, health booklets for our schools, services of a demonstration nurse or clinic follow-up worker are among the projects for our town these little penny seals make possible.

In announcing local plans for the sale, the local committee calls attention to the fact that the Christmas Seal sale is not to be confused with the Red Cross roll call, which has just been completed. The two organizations are entirely separate, each carrying on a most important and valuable work, but programs which are entirely different in purpose. The entire proceeds of the Christmas Seal sale are used for the campaign to wipe out tuberculosis and to make every community in the state a healthier place.

FATAL SHOOTING AT KENOSHA

POLICE HOLD ONE SUSPECT FOR QUESTIONING IN THE AFFAIR

(By United Press) Kenosha, Wis., Dec. 5.—Police were holding a young man whose name is given as Harry Hodge, Milwaukeean, for questioning in connection with the fatal shooting of George Bottlatz and the wounding of Paul Jurek by three men here last night.

Police are convinced it was an attempted holdup. Police declare they believe they were caught at the "game" and became frightened and made their getaway when they attempted to rob the establishment.

Bottlatz had a bullet through his head, while Jurek was perhaps fatally wounded.

"MANHATTAN," A LEGION PICTURE

Opens at New Park Theatre for Two Days, December 11th and 12th

FAST-MOVING ACTION DRAMA

Hero is a Millionaire Bachelor, Tired of Everything Except Desire For Plenty of Action

All who enjoy real fast-moving action drama will be in their glory when Richard Dix's first Paramount picture, "Manhattan" opens at the New Park theatre for two days, December 11th and 12th, under the auspices of the local post of the American Legion. This is the promise of both the officers of the Legion and the management of the theatre. "Manhattan" contains the kind of action dear to the heart of every service man, and Richard Dix carries 98tra role that suits him better than any in which he has yet starred. In the story Dix is an ancestor of the original owner of Manhattan island, who purchased the land from the Indians, and Dix is trying to regain possession for his family so that he can "Put some life into the old town again."

The hero is a millionaire bachelor, tired of everything except the desire for plenty of action. Jacqueline Logan has the role opposite, and is supported by a very strong cast.

Those who saw these stars in "Un-guarded Women," "Sinners in Heaven," and other strong features, will think that "Manhattan" is the best picture in which they have appeared and that it is a story in a class all by itself.

RADIO BROADCASTING

RADIO broadcasting has come to a point where it may be considered a public necessity. Covering in detail the many phases of the operations of the Bureau of Navigation, Commissioner D. B. Carson in his annual report to Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover stresses the phenomenal growth of radio and the necessity of adequate legislation to provide for future developments in this field.

"It seems probable," he says, "that broadcasting is permanently established as a public necessity and may be considered as indispensable in the average home as the telephone. The success achieved in this country has encouraged many other countries to utilize this important means of establishing direct contact with the public."

The question of who will pay for broadcasting in the opinion of Mr. Carson does not appear to require immediate consideration. "The public will probably continue to contribute liberally through cost of equipment purchased. At present there does not appear to be a more equitable way of distributing the cost, while, on the other hand, such stations must have considerable advertising value justifying the expense of operation where owners are not benefited through sales of radio apparatus."

The amateur radio operators are searching for new things in radio and they must be given new fields to explore if their interest is to be held according to the report. They have succeeded in effecting transcontinental communication and have found it possible to intercommunicate with European stations on short wave lengths. In view of their past achievement it seems proper that they be given a few narrow working and experimental channels below 100 meters to encourage further development.

Speaking of new broadcasting stations, one has in mind the new 5,000 watt Gold Medal broadcasting station, WCCO, which will go on the air about April 1st, and will be located 18 miles northwest of Minneapolis and St. Paul. The site for the new station has been bought by the Washburn Crosby Co., owners of the Gold Medal station, and who cooperate with the business men's associations of Minneapolis and St. Paul in operating it.

Equipment will be the last word in radio broadcasting apparatus. The station will occupy a space of ground 500 by 700 feet, and will be two miles from the nearest town. Its aerial towers will be of the three-legged type and 200 feet high, set in concrete bases. The building housing the broadcasting apparatus of the station will be located between the two aerial towers. Studios from which programs will be sent out will be located at both Minneapolis and St. Paul. Three complete telephone lines, each 12 miles in length, will be built from the city limits of Minneapolis and St. Paul to the site of the new station.

THE GOLDEN RULE AS A GUIDE

We are approaching the anniversary of the occasion when the angels sang "Peace on Earth Among Men of Good Will," says the December Rotarian in an editorial emphasizing the value of the Golden Rule. For centuries the world has gone on in its blind and mad ways, oblivious to the great and fundamental importance of the angelic observation which was not a promise but a statement of fact.

Where there is ill will, jealousy, selfishness, covetousness, hatred, indifference and all the other things which are comprehended in ill will, there is no peace. It is only where men let themselves be animated, inspired and directed by the Golden Rule in a true spirit of good will, that there is peace. And as it takes two to make a quarrel, so it takes two to make a peace. If men and nations will have real good will toward another then there will be peace. Let us reflect that the song of the Angels was not a prophecy or a promise, but an affirmation of a fact. The world will have peace when men are of good will.

WHY I TRADE IN BRAINERD

THE second "Why I Trade in Brainerd" essay contest closes this evening and the response has brought many interesting letters advancing many arguments why one should trade in his home town. Attention was called to the fact that the great Northern Pacific railway shops are in Brainerd and the necessity for patronizing the railway.

One letter mentioned that cities from other states are not much interested in "boosting" for Brainerd and cited the adverse mention gained when Brainerd was "exposed" to the world as a churchless community.

All letters agree that the way to build up your town is to patronize its stores and industries. Money spent out of town, as stated by the letters, never has a return ticket to Brainerd.

BRAINERD MENTIONED

THE editor of the Bemidji Daily Pioneer gave Brainerd this editorial on its "churchlessness":

Brainerd is securing some advertising out of the story that was spread broadcast in which it was claimed that Crow Wing county's progressive little city was without religious aid. The majority of newspapers have been quick to come to Brainerd's rescue, all agreeing that Brainerd has everything that a city its size could expect. The radio magazine publishing the original story is to come out with an apology and a denial. An amusing feature of the incident is that the Cincinnati minister who was thanked for his radio sermon is a classmate of the Presbyterian minister in Brainerd.

FIFTY-THREE railroads, appearing in litigation in St. Paul United States district court, are objecting to a reduction of express rates in the west and midwest. The Interstate Commerce Commission decision of May 17 is being attacked.

ABERDEEN, S. D., bankers are considering making a service charge for handling bank accounts which have less than $50 on deposit all of the time. Some city banks require $100 on deposit in order to insure a checking account.

TRUTH in advertising implies honesty in manufacturing, it also implies honesty in merchandising.

Other People's Opinions

Communications are not to exceed 300 words. All must be signed, and will be published with name of writer.

Regrets Brainerd's "Churchlessness"

In a letter from Justin M. Smith, attorney of Bozeman, Montana, Col. C. D. Johnson has received the following sage advice:

November 29th, 1924.
Hon. Charles D. Johnson,
Brainerd, Minn.

My Dear Charlie:—
Under separate cover I am sending you Radio Digest, Nov. 29th. On article written by Webb G. Welborne. It is self explanatory.

I have been told that you fellows in Brainerd were retrograding, but not for a moment did I think that your condition had come to such a deplorable pass. I would suggest that this is proper matter to be referred to the Rotary club and it opens a wide field for activity by it. There is hope but no time can be lost. The situation opens up a wide field and an opportunity for unlimited activity for an intensified campaign, engineered and conducted by "high powered welfare workers," "civic go-getters," "feeble minded social uplifters," etc. I have feared that opportunities and fields for groups of this character were fast disappearing or would disappear with the election of Mr. Coolidge. However, it is evident that there is at least one open and glorious opportunity for these benighted men and women.

Sincerely,
JUSTIN M. SMITH.

RADIO BROADCASTING

RADIO broadcasting has come to a point where it may be considered a public necessity. Covering in detail the many phases of the operations of the Bureau of Navigation, Commissioner D. B. Carson in his annual report to Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover stresses the phenomenal growth of radio and the necessity of adequate legislation to provide for future developments in this field.

"It seems probable," he says, "that broadcasting is permanently established as a public necessity and may be considered as indispensable in the average home as the telephone. The success achieved in this country has encouraged many other countries to utilize this important means of establishing direct contact with the public."

The question of who will pay for broadcasting in the opinion of Mr. Carson does not appear to require immediate consideration. "The public will probably continue to contribute liberally through cost of equipment purchased. At present there does not appear to be a more equitable way of distributing the cost, while, on the other hand, such stations must have considerable advertising value justifying the expense of operation where owners are not benefited through sales of radio apparatus."

The amateur radio operators are searching for new things in radio and they must be given new fields to explore if their interest is to be held according to the report. They have succeeded in effecting transcontinental communication and have found it possible to intercommunicate with European stations on short wave lengths. In view of their past achievement it seems proper that they be given a few narrow working and experimental channels below 100 meters to encourage further development.

Speaking of new broadcasting stations, one has in mind the new 5,000 watt Gold Medal broadcasting station, WCCO, which will go on the air about April 1st, and will be located 18 miles northwest of Minneapolis and St. Paul. The site for the new station has been bought by the Washburn Crosby Co., owners of the Gold Medal station, and who cooperate with the business men's associations of Minneapolis and St. Paul in operating it.

Equipment will be the last word in radio broadcasting apparatus. The station will occupy a space of ground 500 by 700 feet, and will be two miles from the nearest town. Its aerial towers will be of the three-legged type and 200 feet high, set in concrete bases. The building housing the broadcasting apparatus of the station will be located between the two aerial towers. Studios from which programs will be sent out will be located at both Minneapolis and St. Paul. Three complete telephone lines, each 12 miles in length, will be built from the city limits of Minneapolis and St. Paul to the site of the new station.

THE GOLDEN RULE AS A GUIDE

We are approaching the anniversary of the occasion when the angels sang "Peace on Earth Among Men of Good Will," says the December Rotarian in an editorial emphasizing the value of the Golden Rule. For centuries the world has gone on in its blind and mad ways, oblivious to the great and fundamental importance of the angelic observation which was not a promise but a statement of fact.

Where there is ill will, jealousy, selfishness, covetousness, hatred, indifference and all the other things which are comprehended in ill will, there is no peace. It is only where men let themselves be animated, inspired and directed by the Golden Rule in a true spirit of good will, that there is peace. And as it takes two to make a quarrel, so it takes two to make a peace. If men and nations will have real good will toward another then there will be peace. Let us reflect that the song of the Angels was not a prophecy or a promise, but an affirmation of a fact. The world will have peace when men are of good will.

WHY I TRADE IN BRAINERD

THE second "Why I Trade in Brainerd" essay contest closes this evening and the response has brought many interesting letters advancing many arguments why one should trade in his home town. Attention was called to the fact that the great Northern Pacific railway shops are in Brainerd and the necessity for patronizing the railway.

One letter mentioned that cities from other states are not much interested in "boosting" for Brainerd and cited the adverse mention gained when Brainerd was "exposed" to the world as a churchless community.

All letters agree that the way to build up your town is to patronize its stores and industries. Money spent out of town, as stated by the letters, never has a return ticket to Brainerd.

BRAINERD MENTIONED

THE editor of the Bemidji Daily Pioneer gave Brainerd this editorial on its "churchlessness":

Brainerd is securing some advertising out of the story that was spread broadcast in which it was claimed that Crow Wing county's progressive little city was without religious aid. The majority of newspapers have been quick to come to Brainerd's rescue, all agreeing that Brainerd has everything that a city its size could expect. The radio magazine publishing the original story is to come out with an apology and a denial. An amusing feature of the incident is that the Cincinnati minister who was thanked for his radio sermon is a classmate of the Presbyterian minister in Brainerd.

FIFTY-THREE railroads, appearing in litigation in St. Paul United States district court, are objecting to a reduction of express rates in the west and midwest. The Interstate Commerce Commission decision of May 17 is being attacked.

ABERDEEN, S. D., bankers are considering making a service charge for handling bank accounts which have less than $50 on deposit all of the time. Some city banks require $100 on deposit in order to insure a checking account.

TRUTH in advertising implies honesty in manufacturing, it also implies honesty in merchandising

Communications are not to exceed 500 words. All must be signed, and will be published with name of writer.

Regrets Brainerd's "Churchlessness"

In a letter from Justin M. Smith, attorney of Bozeman, Montana, Col. C. D. Johnson has received the following sage advice:

November 29th, 1924.
Hon. Charles D. Johnson,
Brainerd, Minn.
My Dear Charlie:

Under separate cover I am sending you Radio Digest, Nov. 29th. On three marked you will read the article written by Webb G. Welborne. It is self explanatory. I have been told that you fellows in Brainerd were retrograding, but not for a moment did I think that your condition had come to such a deplorable pass. I would suggest that this is proper matter to be referred to the Rotary club and it opens a wide field for activity by it. There is hope but no time can be lost. The situation opens up a wide field and an opportunity for unlimited activity for an intensified campaign, engineered and conducted by "high powered welfare workers," "civic go-getters," "feeble minded social uplifters," etc. I have feared that opportunities and fields for groups of this character were fast disappearing or would disappear with the election of Mr. Coolidge. However, it is evident that there is at least one open and glorious opportunity for these benighted men and women.

Sincerely,
JUSTIN M. SMITH.

DIST. GOVERNOR FLYNN AT CLUB

Popular Head of Rotary Activities in District Visits the Brainerd Rotary Club

ALSO SPEAKS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Confers in Morning at Chamber of Commerce With Directors and Committee Heads

Tuesday was a busy day for District Governor of Rotarians "Eddie" Flynn of St. Paul. Every moment of his time here was spent in working and advancing the cause of Rotary.

He addressed school children at the high school assembly room and surely captivated them.

At 10 a. m. he conferred with directors and committee heads of the Rotary club and offered helpful cooperation and advice.

At noon he delivered a thrilling address on citizenship, Rotary ideals, and the necessity of carrying out Rotary principles. For eloquence and rapid marshalling of facts and their telling presentation, Mr. Flynn has no equal. So rapidly did he sketch his subject that he crowded into his short period at the luncheon club an address that would take any other speaker hours to deliver.

Rev. E. A. Cooke spoke on a phase of educational work in Rotary and the necessity of registering Rotary thoughts into constructive Rotary work.

Three members from Staples Rotary club were present and thus enabled their home club to register its fourth successive 100 per cent meeting. Staples club, by the way, is a protégé of Brainerd club.

District Governor Flynn was made cognizant of the fact that Brainerd Rotary in summer has as visitors some of the most prominent Rotarians in the United States who enjoy their recreation in the Brainerd Lake Region. For instance, one meeting last summer was a notable one, the club hearing four past presidents of Indianapolis, Indiana, Rotary tell of their club work.

Using local speakers, as Brainerd club often does, gained favorable comment from District Governor Flynn. On the whole, he was well pleased with the activity shown and results achieved by Brainerd Rotary club.

REAL LINCOLN IN THE FILMS

George Billings Gives Impersonation of Great President that Startles Friends

FILM TO BECOME HISTORICAL

Producers Have Been Faithful to Ideals of the Martyr Executive

Abraham Lincoln lives again in the motion picture version of the life of our sixteenth president.

"Abraham Lincoln" will be shown at the New Park theatre Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 6 and 7.

When ex-United States Senator Cornelius Cole met George Billings, who impersonates the great man, he exclaimed: "You look so much like Lincoln that I was shocked when I first saw you. I last saw President Lincoln that I was shocked when I was assassinated, and you look enough like him to be him."

Senator Cole was one hundred and one years old Sept. 17, 1923, and for many years he was a close friend of Lincoln, both before and after his election to the presidency.

Mr. Billings is the same height as Lincoln, has the same gait, mannerisms, voice, temperament, physiognomy, and the same gentleness of spirit. He is modest, not at all stagey and hasn't the least idea that he is a great artist.

His application to play the part in "Abraham Lincoln" was a simple request to be given a try-out.

The great thing in his favor was the fact that of all the professional stage and screen Lincolns, he was equipped to play Lincoln both as the young man and the elder statesman, the character of Lincoln appearing in picture play at the age of twenty-two and continuing through to the assassination. After a thorough try-out Mr. Billings was entrusted with the role. While studying the role as written into the scenario by Frances Marion, Mr. Billings also deliberately went to work to upbuild his physical condition to withstand the long weeks of arduous labor before the camera.

And how do you suppose Billings went about building up his impaired health. In the most appropriate manner. He went out to Sunland where the Rockett company was building the log town of New Salem and there split logs and chopped wood in the mountain air until he became as hard as Lincoln himself—for that's the way Abraham grew strong and hardy, say his biographers.

Kellogg's Bran delights father by bringing health to children

Poor little kids—they needed bran badly. But they wouldn't eat ordinary bran. They didn't like them. Most folks don't. Then their father tried Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. What a difference! He tells the story in his letter:

"Dear Sirs:

I wish to express my appreciation of your krumbled bran, which I have used for my children this summer. We had a great deal of trouble with them through constipation, and bran had been the most satisfactory remedy but they could not be induced to take the old varieties. . . . because they disliked them so. They enjoy the krumbled bran and consider it an essential ingredient of their porridge. No one whose children have not been troubled in this way can appreciate the relief there is in having their bowels move regularly."

(The original of this letter is on file

at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It should not be neglected. But do not try halfway measures in seeking relief. Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. And it takes ALL bran to be 100% effective. Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to bring permanent relief, if eaten regularly, in the most chronic cases. If it fails, your grocer will return your money.

Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream. The flavor is delicious. Sprinkle it on other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it in the recipes on every package. It will bring you health. Begin eating it to-day. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

At 10 a. m. he conferred with directors and committee heads of the Rotary club and offered helpful cooperation and advice.

At noon he delivered a thrilling address on citizenship, Rotary ideals, and the necessity of carrying out Rotary principles. For eloquence and rapid marshalling of facts and their telling presentation, Mr. Flynn has no equal. So rapidly did he sketch his subject that he crowded into his short period at the luncheon club an address that would take any other speaker hours to deliver.

Rev. E. A. Cooke spoke on a phase of educational work in Rotary and the necessity of registering Rotary thoughts into constructive Rotary work.

Three members from Staples Rotary club were present and thus enabled their home club to register its fourth successive 100 per cent meeting. Staples club, by the way, is a protégé of Brainerd club.

District Governor Flynn was made cognizant of the fact that Brainerd Rotary in summer has as visitors some of the most prominent Rotarians in the United States who enjoy their recreation in the Brainerd Lake Region. For instance, one meeting last summer was a notable one, the club hearing four past presidents of Indianapolis, Indiana, Rotary tell of their club work.

Using local speakers, as Brainerd club often does, gained favorable comment from District Governor Flynn. On the whole, he was well pleased with the activity shown and results achieved by Brainerd Rotary club.

REAL LINCOLN IN THE FILMS

George Billings Gives Impersonation of Great President that Startles Friends

FILM TO BECOME HISTORICAL

Producers Have Been Faithful to Ideals of the Martyr Executive

Abraham Lincoln lives again in the motion picture version of the life of our sixteenth president.

"Abraham Lincoln" will be shown at the New Park theatre Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 6 and 7.

When ex-United States Senator Cornelius Cole met George Billings, who impersonates the great man, he exclaimed: "You look so much like Lincoln that I was shocked when I first saw you. I last saw President Lincoln that I was shocked when I was assassinated, and you look enough like him to be him."

Senator Cole was one hundred and one years old Sept. 17, 1923, and for many years he was a close friend of Lincoln, both before and after his election to the presidency.

Mr. Billings is the same height as Lincoln, has the same gait, mannerisms, voice, temperament, physiognomy, and the same gentleness of spirit. He is modest, not at all stagey and hasn't the least idea that he is a great artist.

His application to play the part in "Abraham Lincoln" was a simple request to be given a try-out.

The great thing in his favor was the fact that of all the professional stage and screen Lincolns, he was equipped to play Lincoln both as the young man and the elder statesman, the character of Lincoln appearing in picture play at the age of twenty-two and continuing through to the assassination. After a thorough try-out Mr. Billings was entrusted with the role. While studying the role as written into the scenario by Frances Marion, Mr. Billings also deliberately went to work to rebuild his physical condition to withstand the long weeks of arduous labor before the camera.

And how do you suppose Billings went about building up his impaired health. In the most appropriate manner. He went out to Sunland where the Rockett company was building the log town of New Salem and there split logs and chopped wood in the mountain air until he became as hard as Lincoln himself—for that's the way Abraham grew strong and hardy, say his biographers.

Kellogg's Bran delights father by bringing health to children

Poor little kids—they needed bran badly. But they wouldn't eat ordinary bran. They didn't like them. Most folks don't. Then their father tried Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. What a difference! He tells the story in his letter:

"Dear Sirs:

I wish to express my appreciation of your krumbled bran, which I have used for my children this summer. We had a great deal of trouble with them through constipation, and bran had been the most satisfactory remedy but they could not be induced to take the old varieties . . . because they disliked them so. They enjoy the krumbled bran and consider it an essential ingredient of their porridge. No one whose children have not been troubled in this way can appreciate the relief there is in having their bowels move regularly."

(The original of this letter is on file

at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It should not be neglected. But do not try halfway measures in seeking relief. Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. And it takes ALL bran to be 100% effective. Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to bring permanent relief, if eaten regularly, in the most chronic cases. If it fails, your grocer will return your money.

Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream. The flavor is delicious. Sprinkle it on other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it in the recipes on every package. It will bring you health. Begin eating it to-day. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

FIDELITY STORE OPENS SATURDAY

Store in New Jewel Block Carries Complete Stock of Groceries and Fruits

N. J. C. QUALITY PRODUCTS
Headquarters of the Chain Store System is Located in Chicago

Fidelity Store No. 1009, carrying a complete stock of groceries and fruits, will open in Brainerd on Saturday in the new Jewel block, recently completed by Con O'Brien on the site of the former Imperial building.

The Fidelity stores are a part of a chain system now operating extensively in Michigan and Illinois, and have just entered Minnesota, with six stores in St. Paul and a number on the Mesaba range. The headquarters of the company is in Chicago.

The plan of the Fidelity stores is different from other kinds of chain institutions through the northwest, in that the Fidelity features its own brand of groceries under the name of the N. J. C. High Quality Products. This line is packed for the company and is one which it can unqualifiedly guarantee to its patrons.

In addition to the N. J. C. goods, the Fidelity will carry a complete line of nationally advertised brands of staple groceries which are popular in every household.

F. E. Janneck will be the manager of the Brainerd store and is already in charge. Mr. Janneck has moved his family to the city and will occupy apartments in the Jewel block. He has had a long experience in the grocery line and comes to Brainerd from one of the St. Paul Fidelity stores. He will make every effort to fill the needs of local customers and promises the utmost in quality of merchandise as well as service.

The Fidelity store has its opening advertisement in today's Dispatch and will no doubt become one of the paper's regular advertisers.

First Baptist Church Choir

The choir of the First Baptist church will give a Christmas cantata Sunday evening, Dec. 21st, entitled, "The World's Redeemer." This beautiful music is full of the real spirit of Christmas. The solo parts will be taken by Mrs. R. E. Cody, Mrs. E. H. Thiel, Mrs. Nesmith Nelson, Will Anderson and William Greenwood.

Would Rather Fight Than Work

"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and could not eat and just hated for anyone to say work to me. I would rather fight. Since taking a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy I actually want to work, and talk about eat, I am the last one to leave the table now." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists everywhere.—Advt.

REFRIGERATION PLANT ADDED

Nash-Finch Co., Successors to Brainerd Grocery Co., Adds $10,000 Improvement

THREE ROOMS IN THE PLANT
Have Storage Capacity of About Three Carloads of Fruit

The Nash-Finch Company, successors to the Brainerd Grocery Company, is installing a model refrigeration plant, which when completed, will cost about ten thousand dollars, and will be used in connection with the fresh fruit and vegetable department recently added to the company's lines.

This refrigeration plant will consist of three rooms, with a storage capacity of about three carloads of fruit. These rooms are lined with two thicknesses of heavy cork insulation, which will carry a coat of plaster and be painted white. Cement floors will be used throughout.

The largest room is 25 feet by 50 feet, with a twelve foot ceiling. This will be used for the storage of most of the fruit. Connected with this room on one side is another large refrigeration room for bananas alone, and on the other side a smaller room for keeping fresh vegetables. The doors leading into these rooms are large enough to accommodate the small trucks used in handling the fruit.

A second banana room, similarly insulated, but heated instead of cooled, will be for ripening this fruit, after which it is transferred to the cold room and held there until ready for shipment.

The refrigeration system is the most approved type, using ammonia instead of ice. The ammonia plant will be located in the basement, just below the cooling rooms, and will be installed early in the spring. This method eliminates the handling of ice and maintains a more uniform temperature than is possible through the use of the ice systems, it is claimed.

The Nash-Finch Company, in its three months of business in the Brainerd territory, has established quite a fruit patronage, which is growing to such proportions that adequate refrigeration is necessary. Its fruit department will be featured to an even greater extent when the plant is completed, which should be before the first of the year.

"FATIGUE IN CHILDREN," TOPIC

Dr. Max Seham, Professor of Ethics, University of Minnesota, Lectured Here

AT HIGH SCHOOL THURSDAY

Spoke to Combined Parent-Teachers' Associations and Their Friends

Dr. Max Seham, professor of ethics of the medical college, University of Minnesota, spoke to the combined parent-teachers' associations of the city at the high school on Thursday evening, using as his subject, "Fatigue in Children."

"The maximum development of a child runs parallel with his maximum working capacity, mental and physical," said Dr. Seham, "and if this working capacity is lessened, so that the power of recovery is decreased, a state of fatigue is established."

"Mental fatigue sets in after one hour, experiment show, and the number of errors in a child's school work increase with the continuation of his mental work," claimed the doctor, who went farther to say that it has been learned that children attending school in the morning only, advance as rapidly as those whose school day consists of both morning and afternoon sessions."

Factors which enter into fatigue in children are many, and include diet, sleep, social life, hygiene and home influence, as well as mental and physical exertion, says Dr. Seham.

Improperly balanced diet, as well as insufficient food, is a large contributing factor to fatigue, and this cause was charged to neglect or ignorance of parents, and sleeping late in the morning that the child does not have the proper time to eat breakfast before going to school.

Thirteen hours of sleep for a child six years of age and ten hours and a half to children fourteen years old was advocated by the speaker as an average, who contended that the fatigued child invariably suffered from insufficient, irregular and disturbed sleep.

Girls err more than boys in excessive mental work, with more reading, prolonged home study, music and elocution, all of which brings on fatigue.

In many homes the social life plays a prominent role, and since children are prone to imitate their parents, they soon learn to enjoy evening parties and entertainments, said Dr. Seham. This social life, with the movies are among the first rank in the evils of school children, and are the cause of more fatigue than many parents imagine, claimed the speaker.

Adequate teaching of personal hygiene is of the most vital importance in the prevention of fatigue. It should begin in the kindergarten and follow throughout the child's school life. Emphasis should be laid upon cleanliness of finger nails, hair, teeth, clothing, proper methods of breathing, attention to good posture, and rules of health, stated the doctor, and should be in addition to the regular physical education which is a part of most courses of study, especially in the higher grades.

While it is impossible to standardize all of the habits of school children, it is possible for both parents and teachers to prevent fatigue or lessen it to a marked degree by intelligently studying the causes of this fatigue and planning a course of action to eliminate these causes.

The lecture was well attended and Dr. Seham's remarks brought much valuable information to the teachers and instructors, which will be used in the crusade against fatigue. Dr. Seham was brought to the city through the combined efforts of all of the local parent-teachers' organizations.

Fifty Guests Welcome Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jernberg to Their New Home

Friends and neighbors pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jernberg on Sunday afternoon, over fifty guests being present to welcome the couple to their new home, recently completed on Pine street.

C. N. Olson, in appropriate words, presented Mr. and Mrs. Jernberg with a cut glass bowl and reflector, together with candle sticks. Mr. Jernberg expressed his appreciation in a few well chosen words and also favored with several vocal selections. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Also Bobbed Hair Contest Staged on Tuesday Evening, December 9th

CONTEST PROVISIONS

Leave Applications and Receive Information at Office of Manager Hiller

The Lyceum theatre will hold a style review and a bobbed hair contest on Tuesday evening, Dec. 9th, which the management feels will interest all of the ladies in Brainerd and vicinity.

Those who wish to enter this contest are asked to leave their applications and receive detailed information at the office of Manager W. R. Hiller at the Lyceum not later than Monday evening. Each and every contestant will receive a free marcel on the day of the contest, either at the Lyceum or Rose beauty parlors.

A committee will be appointed to judge this contest, and two cash prizes will be awarded for the most popular bob. A third prize in this contest consists of a free marcel at one of the local beauty parlors.

This event, says Manager Hiller, is already causing much favorable comment among the ladies and even the male sex is showing some interest, for patrons of the Lyceum will get a close-up view of the latest in feminine hair dressing styles.

This added feature on Tuesday evening's program is given in connection with Viola Dana's latest film, entitled, "Along Came Ruth," Henry Savage's famous stage comedy. Together they form one of the strongest bills offered by the Lyceum for some time.

ATTEND PATROL LEADER MEETING

Five of the Local Boy Scouts to Attend Second Annual Conference at St. Paul

300 DELEGATES EXPECTED

Topics to be Discussed are Sustaining Boys' Interest and Group Meeting Problems

Five of the local Boy Scouts left this afternoon to attend the second annual State Patrol Leaders Conference at St. Paul.

The conference is under the direction of the State Engineering Department of the University and is conducted jointly by the Boy Scouts councils at St. Paul and Minneapolis under the leadership of executives of the twin cities. Boys will gather from all parts of the state and it is expected there will be in the neighborhood of three hundred delegates.

The work which will be covered at the conference will be the discussion of holding the boys' interest and covering the problems which the Scouts meet with in their group meetings.

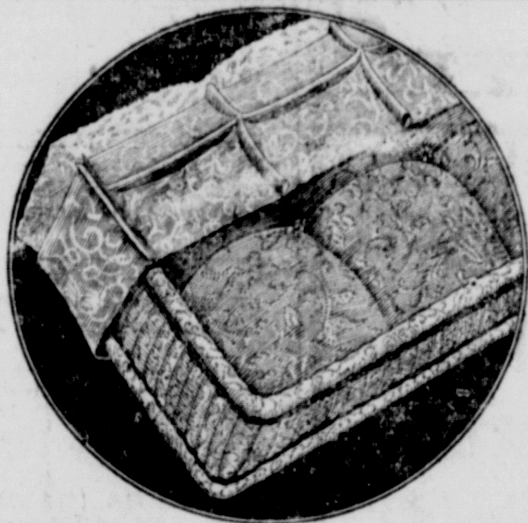

Eugene Stimble of the local Scout troop No. 5 will give a brief talk in one of the meetings.

The boys who will attend the conference are Eugene Stimble, Gaylord Kinney, John Ellison, Hallet Clarkson and Earl Jamieson. They will be accompanied by the scout executive.

Christmas Sale

The annual Christmas sale of the First Congregational church will be held in the social parlors of the church on Saturday, Dec. 6th. There will be a light lunch served and a sale of good things to eat.

"FATIGUE IN CHILDREN," TOPIC

Dr. Max Seham, Professor of Ethics, University of Minnesota, Lectured Here

AT HIGH SCHOOL THURSDAY

Spoke to Combined Parent-Teachers' Associations and Their Friends

Dr. Max Seham, professor of ethics of the medical college, University of Minnesota, spoke to the combined parent-teachers' associations of the city at the high school on Thursday evening, using as his subject, "Fatigue in Children."

"The maximum development of a child runs parallel with his maximum working capacity, mental and physical," said Dr. Seham, "and if this working capacity is lessened, so that the power of recovery is decreased, a state of fatigue is established."

"Mental fatigue sets in after one hour, experiment show, and the number of errors in a child's school work increase with the continuation of his mental work," claimed the doctor, who went farther to say that it has been learned that children attending school in the morning only, advance as rapidly as those whose school day consists of both morning and afternoon sessions."

Factors which enter into fatigue in children are many, and include diet, sleep, social life, hygiene and home influence, as well as mental and physical exertion, says Dr. Seham.

Improperly balanced diet, as well as insufficient food, is a large contributing factor to fatigue, and this cause was charged to neglect or ignorance of parents, and sleeping so late in the morning that the child does not have the proper time to eat breakfast before going to school.

Thirteen hours of sleep for a child six years of age and ten hours and a half to children fourteen years old was advocated by the speaker as an average, who contended that the fatigued child invariably suffered from insufficient, irregular and disturbed sleep.

NOTRE DAME WILL LOSE 17 PLAYERS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Dec. 5.—Any football coach in the country might be pardoned for assuming a sour countenance when he saw seventeen varsity players turn in their uniforms for the last time.

There were seventeen seniors on the Notre Dame squad this year including Stuhldreher, Miller, Crowley and Layden, a combination that competent Eastern critics said was the greatest backfield ever assembled.

Rockne will not wear a gloomy face. He is not only an optimist by nature but he has become more of a cheer spreader by his experience as the director of football at one of the greatest football institutions among the colleges.

If it had not been shown so many times in the past that tears shed for Rockne are tears wept in vain, the mourner's bench might be packed and shipped to South Bend. There might also be the festive boards spread for those of the East and Middle-west who would want to have a sign of relief at the termination of the domination of Notre Dame on the college gridiron.

Rockne, however, has known for two years that seventeen of his best players were in 1925 classes and that he would have to break out with a new team. The betting is two to one that he will send a team out again next fall that will be a typical Notre Dame team and that is about as much as can be said for any team.

Rockne started a fad this year by sending his second team on the field in the first quarter and rushing the regulars in when it looked like the second stringers weren't able to hold their own. The Notre Dame coach is a vogue-starter. Although there was no significant strategy in a move to keep the regulars on the bench until they were needed vitally, several Eastern coaches picked up the stunt and tried it in their big games.

With Notre Dame, however, it was not a move designed for deception or a piece of strategy, it was merely a means of getting some good experience for the youngsters on the squad that Rockne was preparing to take the places of his seventeen seniors next fall. It was also a good way to keep his stars from going stale by the hard competition of the stiffest schedule arranged for any team in the country. The wisdom of getting substitutes ready for bigger jobs was shown when Adam Walsh, as great a center as ever played football, and Harry Stuhldreher, an All-American quarterback if there ever was one, were hurt and had to be taken out for two big games. In the pinch Rockne reached down in the squad bag and pulled out two substitutes that made the two injured stars hardly missed.

"The Red Lily," One of Season's Finest

An exceedingly dramatic situation occurs in Fred Niblo's "The Red Lily," the Metro-Goldwyn production which comes to the Lyceum theatre Sunday. A young man of wealth has been disinherited by his father for falling in love with a girl of poor parents and has fled with her to Paris. They lose each other there, and are drawn into the underworld. Years later the man, now a thief, sought by the police, is lured into the room of a woman of the streets. In her he recognizes the lost sweetheart of his youth. At the same instant she realizes that this disreputable gamin before her is the lost idol of her dreams.

George Billings and Ruth Clifford in "Abraham Lincoln"

Three Years to Make Lincoln Film
Al and Ray Rockett, the young producers of "Abraham Lincoln," which is scheduled to show at the New Park on Saturday and Sunday, spent nearly three years transferring to the screen the life of this great patriot. Experts on the life of Lincoln were called to aid them. All of the places connected with the life of Lincoln were visited and an exact replica of the village of Salem where Lincoln first gained fame was built.

Here he is, handsome Fred Thomson, the new western star, appearing in "Galloping Gallagher," show ing at the Lyceum last time tonight.

SOLDIER LASHER WRESTLES IN A CHINESE THEATRE

BRAINERD BOY NEVER TASTED DEFEAT ON THE MAT

LASHER, LONG AND WIRY, OP- PONENT HOWARD HEAVY AND HUSKY

Mrs. Mary Lasher, of Northeast Brainerd, is in receipt of the following clipping, taken from a paper printed in China, and sent to her by her son, who is in the United States army:

"A wrestling bout between two of the best men in the Orient will take place at the Biograph theatre tonight.

"Soldier Lasher, who has never tasted defeat on the mat, will engage in a battle of strength and endurance with Howard, who also has yet to be defeated in this particular game.

"This should prove to be a very interesting affair, as the men are of two entirely different types, Lasher the long wiry type and Howard the heavy, husky man. Both are clever and willing.

"The bout will be staged during the intermission. It will be remembered that Lasher gave a good account of himself with the Siberian recently, and as he is in training at the present time for the Fifteenth Infantry football team, he has every opportunity to show just how good a man he is.

"In addition to this unusual attraction, there is also an attractive cinema program with Buster Keaton in a two reel comedy."

The clipping bore the date October 11th, and was sent to Mrs. Lasher before the bout was staged, so that the outcome is not known. A part of the clipping is printed in English, and part in Chinese characters. Mrs. Lasher does not know the name of the paper or the town in which it is printed.

How to Hold Your Wife—Learn Lat- est Dance Steps

"Improving the mind is not one of the indoor sports of the tea dance," says a subtitle in the new Paramount production. But another title says, "Bachelors step where husbands will not tread," adding "P. S.—And always the latest steps."

Adapted by Clara Beranger, "The Fast Set," which is a visualization of Frederick Lonsdale's New York and London stage success, is probably the last word in diagnosing the relationship between the jazz made set and the modern family.

Talmdage in New Type of Detective Story

The acme of thrills, woven in skillfully with the fresh young romance of a poor boy and a rich girl, forms the basis of the mystery photoplay, "Stepping Lively," coming to the Lyceum Saturday, one day only. It taps a vein of drama entirely new in the history of detective stories on the screen, and provides its athletic young star with one of the best opportunities of his career, of which Mr. Talmdage takes full advantage.

The EASY Vacuum Electric WASHER

Before you buy a washing machine, let us demonstrate without obligation on your part, the "EASY" method of washing clothes by means of Air Pressure and Suction. The revolving vacuum cups move up and down sixty times per minute—on the down stroke they force the water through the mesh of the garments—on the up stroke they suck the water back through the mesh. This efficient method of washing forces all dirt and foreign substances out of the garments without the least wear, tear or friction. Air Pressure and Suction washes the heaviest blankets or the daintiest lingerie.

Easy Credit Terms

An initial payment will put the "EASY" in your home. The balance can be arranged to suit your convenience. Let your good credit take the drudgery out of washday.

NOTICE OF REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE

Default having been made in the conditions of that certain real estate mortgage duly made, executed and delivered by Henry E. Kundert and Mazie Kundert, his wife, and Robert E. Snell and Bridget Snell, his wife, mortgagors, to John O. Hanchett, mortgagee, bearing date on the 15th day of November, A. D. 1919, with a power of sale therein contained, and duly filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, on the 19th day of November, A. D. 1919, at 12 o'clock noon of said day, and duly recorded therein in Book 27 of Mortgages on Page 63. That the default under said mortgage consists in this, the failure on the part of the mortgagors to pay the installment of interest of Five Hundred Forty ($540.00) Dollars, due on the 15th day of November, 1924, and the failure to pay the principal mortgage debt and note of Nine Thousand ($9,000.00) Dollars, due and payable on the 15th day of November, 1924, and the failure to pay said mortgage and by reason of said default, the whole of said mortgage debt is now due and payable.

And Whereas, there is claimed to be due and is now due on said mortgage, including principal and interest, at the date of this notice, the sum of Ten Thousand One Hundred Twenty and 40-100 ($10,120.40) Dollars;

And Whereas, no action or proceedings have been instituted at law or otherwise to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

NOW THEREFORE Notice is hereby given that by authority of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the mortgaged premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, to-wit: All that tract or parcel of land lying and being in the County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, and described as follows, to-wit: The West Half (W½) of Section Twenty-seven (27) in Township One Hundred Thirty-eight (138), North of Range Twenty-eight (28) West, containing Three Hundred and Twenty (320) acres, more or less, according to the government survey thereof, together with all the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, which said premises will be sold by the Sheriff of said County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, on the 17th day of January, A. D. 1925, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy and to pay the said debt now due as aforesaid, to-wit: the sum of Ten Thousand One Hundred Twelve and 40-100 ($10,120.40) Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the date hereof, together with the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) attorney's fees, as provided for in said mortgage and by law, and together with the costs and disbursements of said foreclosure and sale as allowed by law. Dated this 26th day of November, A. D. 1924.

NOTRE DAME WILL LOSE 17 PLAYERS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Dec. 5.—Any football coach in the country might be pardoned for assuming a sour countenance when he saw seventeen varsity players turn in their uniforms for the last time.

There were seventeen seniors on the Notre Dame squad this year including Stuhldreher, Miller, Crowley and Layden, a combination that competent Eastern critics said was the greatest backfield ever assembled.

Rockne will not wear a gloomy face. He is not only an optimist by nature but he has become more of a cheer spreader by his experience as the director of football at one of the greatest football institutions among the colleges.

If it had not been shown so many times in the past that tears shed for Rockne are tears wept in vain, the mourner's bench might be packed and shipped to South Bend. There might also be the festive boards spread for those of the East and Middle-west who would want to heave a sigh of relief at the termination of the domination of Notre Dame on the college gridiron.

Rockne, however, has known for two years that seventeen of his best players were in 1925 classes and that he would have to break out with a new team. The betting is two to one that he will send a team out again next fall that will be a typical Notre Dame team and that is about as much as can be said for any team.

Rockne started a fad this year by sending his second team on the field in the first quarter and rushing the regulars in when it looked like the second stringers weren't able to hold their own. The Notre Dame coach is a vague starter. Although there was no significant strategy in a move to keep the regulars on the bench until they were needed vitally, several Eastern coaches picked up the stunt and tried it in their big games.

With Notre Dame, however, it was not a move designed for deception or a piece of strategy, it was merely a means of getting some good experience for the youngsters on the squad that Rockne was preparing to take the places of his seventeen seniors next fall. It was also a good way to keep his stars from going stale by the hard competition of the stiffest schedule arranged for any team in the country. The wisdom of getting substitutes ready for bigger jobs was shown when Adam Walsh, as great a center as ever played football, and Harry Stuhldreher, an All-American quarterback if there ever was one, were hurt and had to be taken out for two big games. In the pinch Rockne reached down in the squad bag and pulled out two substitutes that made the two injured stars hardly missed.

"The Red Lily," One of Season's Finest

An exceedingly dramatic situation occurs in Fred Niblo's "The Red Lily," the Metro-Goldwyn production which comes to the Lyceum theatre Sunday. A young man of wealth has been disinherited by his father for falling in love with a girl of poor parents and has fled with her to Paris. They lose each other there, and are drawn into the underworld. Years later the man, now a thief sought by the police, is lured into the room of a woman of the streets. In her he recognizes the lost sweetheart of his youth. At the same instant she realizes that this disreputable gamin before her is the lost idol of her dreams.

George Billings and Ruth Clifford in "Abraham Lincoln"

Three Years to Make Lincoln Film
Al and Ray Rockett, the young producers of "Abraham Lincoln," which is scheduled to show at the New Park on Saturday and Sunday, spent nearly three years transferring to the screen the life of this great patriot. Experts on the life of Lincoln were called to aid them. All of the places connected with the life of Lincoln were visited and an exact replica of the village of Salem where Lincoln first gained fame was built.

Here he is, handsome Fred Thomson, the new western star, appearing in "Galloping Gallagher," show ing at the Lyceum last time tonight.

SOLDIER LASHER WRESTLES IN A CHINESE THEATRE

BRAINERD BOY NEVER TASTED DEFEAT ON THE MAT

LASHER, LONG AND WIRY, OP- PONENT HOWARD HEAVY AND HUSKY

Mrs. Mary Lasher, of Northeast Brainerd, is in receipt of the following clipping, taken from a paper printed in China, and sent to her by her son, who is in the United States army:

"A wrestling bout between two of the best men in the Orient will take place at the Biograph theatre to-night.

"Soldier Lasher, who has never tasted defeat on the mat, will engage in a battle of strength and endurance with Howard, who also has yet to be defeated in this particular game.

"This should prove to be a very interesting affair, as the men are of two entirely different types, Lasher the long wiry type and Howard the heavy, husky man. Both are clever and willing.

"The bout will be staged during the intermission. It will be remembered that Lasher gave a good account of himself with the Siberian recently, and as he is in training at the present time for the Fifteenth Infantry football team, he has every opportunity to show just how good a man he is.

"In addition to this unusual attraction, there is also an attractive cinema program with Buster Keaton in a two reel comedy."

The clipping bore the date October 11th, and was sent to Mrs. Lasher before the bout was staged, so that the outcome is not known. A part of the clipping is printed in English, and part in Chinese characters. Mrs. Lasher does not know the name of the paper or the town in which it is printed.

How to Hold Your Wife—Learn Lat- est Dance Steps

Dance—that is an effective way to retain the affections of one's wife!

This advice is pointed in William de Mille's production, "The Fast Set," which will be shown at the New Park last time tonight.

"Improving the mind is not one of the indoor sports of the tea dance," says a subtitle in the new Paramount production. But another title says, "Bachelors step where husbands will not tread," adding "P. S.—And always the latest steps."

Betty Compson and Elliott Dexter in "The Fast Set"

NOTICE OF REAL ESTATE MORT- GAGE FORECLOSURE SALE

Default having been made in the conditions of a certain real estate mortgage duly made, executed and delivered by Henry E. Kundert and Mazie Kundert, his wife, and Robert E. Smith and Bridget Smith, his wife, mortgagors, to John O. Hanchett, mortgagee, bearing date on the 15th day of November, A. D. 1919, with a power of sale therein contained, and duly filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, on the 15th day of November, A. D. 1919, at 12 o'clock noon of said day, and duly recorded therein in Book 27 of Mortgages on Page 62.

That the default under said mortgage consists in this, the failure on the part of the mortgagors to pay the installment of interest of Five Hundred Forty ($540.00) Dollars, due on the 15th day of November, 1923, and the failure to pay the principal mortgage debt and note of Nine Thousand ($9,000.00) Dollars, due and payable on the 15th day of November, 1924, and that under the terms of said mortgage and by reason of said default, the whole of said mortgage debt is now due and payable.

And Whereas, there is claimed to be due and is now due on said mortgage, including principal and interest, at the date of this notice, the sum of Ten Thousand One Hundred Twelve and 40-100 ($10,112.40) Dollars;

And Whereas, no action or proceedings have been instituted at law or otherwise to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

NOW THEREFORE, Notice is hereby given that by authority of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the mortgaged premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, to-wit:

All that tract or parcel of land lying and being in the County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, and described as follows, to-wit: The Half (½) of Section Twenty-seven (27), in Township One Hundred Thirty-eight (138) North of Range Twenty-eight (28) West, containing Three Hundred and Twenty (320) acres, more or less, according to the government survey thereof, together with all the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, on the 15th day of January, A. D. 1925, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy and to pay the said debt now due as aforesaid, to-wit: the sum of Ten Thousand One Hundred Twelve and 40-100 ($10,112.40), Dollars with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the date hereof, together with the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) attorney's fees, as provided for in said mortgage and by law, and together with the costs and disbursements of said foreclosure and sale as allowed by law.

Dated this 26th day of November, A. D. 1924.
